YOUR LISTING

While we can Delist you for any reason, whether or not this has been agreed to by you, here is a non-exhaustive list of reasons for Delisting:

- unfair discrimination against Customers
- low quality service
- bad value for money
- owing us money
- bad press related to your Establishment

In the event of your Establishment's Delisting, the rights and obligations of all parties under the terms of this agreement will persist.

In the event of your Establishment's Delisting, Southern Staying reserves the right to use any of your Content for any marketing material that may already have been designed or advertising space that may already have been purchased.

In the event of your Delisting, Southern Staying reserves the right to always retain your Content in the Southern Staying Software, and to display your Listing to Customers who may have already made past enquiries or bookings at your Establishment.

We reserve the right to alter your Listing at any time to be in line with best practices on the Southern Staying Software. We are not required to notify you of any such changes.

You warrant that your Content (including, but not limited to, text and photographs) is

REVIEWS

Southern Staying may publish guest comments and/or reviews on or in connection with your Listing.

Southern Staying is not liable or responsible in any way for the verification or accuracy of any such guest comments published.

Southern Staying will not be liable for any direct or indirect loss or damage of whatsoever nature and howsoever arising as a result of any guest comments published on or in connection with your Listing.

PAYMENTS

You hereby appoint Southern Staying as your agent, eligible to receive payments on your behalf with respect to any bookings at your establishment made through Southern Staying software.

Southern Staying will only pay to you all amounts collected by us from the Customer, subject to the deductions specified on pages 7-11.

Southern Staying will pay monies due to you within a week after the month end of the booking taking place. You agree to honor bookings processed by Southern Staying prior to receipt of these funds. International transfers may take even longer.

You agree that on occasion certain payments from us to you may be delayed due to unforeseen circumstances, including high usage periods that may render online banking services unusable, or in situations where the details regarding the amount owed to you is under dispute, or where we have not yet received your banking details or sufficient proof thereof when required.

It is your responsibility to provide Southern Staying with your correct bank details, as well as proof thereof if requested. Should a change in ownership or bank account take place, you must immediately notify Southern Staying accordingly. Southern Staying will not be held responsible for payments made into incorrect accounts if we are not notified timeously of changes to your bank details.

Southern Staying may offset any amounts you may owe to Southern Staying for any reason against any amounts that Southern Staying owes you, including but not limited to our commission earned on any bookings.

Southern Staying may charge the Customer additional fees in connection with our services provided in assisting them with their accommodation booking at your Establishment. You will have no claim over any such fees paid to Southern Staying for additional services or otherwise.

You agree that you will not disclose or display Southern Staying's commission to any Customer or other person or Establishment.

It is your responsibility to ensure that in the case of new ownership or management of your Establishment, the new owner or manager will honor this agreement and any existing bookings that had been made via Southern Staying. You will, however, also remain liable in terms of this agreement.

DELIVERY

You hereby agree to honor bookings reported as “confirmed” by Southern Staying regardless of whether you have yet received any associated payments. An instant booking is confirmed when payment by a customer is made to Southern Staying by electronic funds transfer or when Southern Staying receives proof of such payment.

NON-DELIVERY

Anticipated non-delivery occurs when Southern Staying reasonably expects that non-delivery may occur for an upcoming booking. Anticipated non-delivery is considered as non-delivery for all purposes in this contract.

Examples of non-delivery include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Instances of double booking with your personal usage dates, where you cannot honor the Customer’s stay as exactly specified in their booking.
- Unilateral cancellation from your side, or any refusal by you to honor the booking
- Instances where the Customer’s booking is not honored by new ownership or management of your Establishment, or due to your Establishment having ceased business operations.

Examples of anticipated non-delivery include, but are not limited to:

- Bad press relating to your Establishment.
- Riots that make it dangerous to enter your town or region.
- Natural disaster in or nearby to your region.
- State of disaster declared by the South African government.

In the case of a non-delivered booking, the Customer may choose to receive either a full-refund or, in the case where they have not yet completed their stay, a replacement booking for those nights not yet completed.

Cases of non-delivery are not subject to Southern Staying’s usual cancellation policy.

- You will be liable for any amounts that may have already been paid to you for the non-delivered booking.
- You will forfeit any amounts currently owed to you for the non-delivered booking.
- Southern Staying will retain our right to invoice you for the commission on the Total Booking Value of non-delivered booking.

In the case where a Customer elects for Southern Staying to find a replacement booking as a result of your non-delivery, Southern Staying will attempt to find a replacement booking that meets the Customer Expectation. You acknowledge that in some cases, especially during high season, this may result in the replacement booking costing substantially more than the Total Booking Value. You will be liable to Southern Staying for the difference in cost between the Total Booking Value of the non-delivered booking and the replacement booking, for those nights that were replaced, as well as the commission lost by Southern Staying on the Total Booking Value on this non-deliverable booking.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS

Southern Staying reserves the right to retain all the commission it had earned on any cancelled booking. In the event of a cancelled booking, Southern Staying’s cancellation policy will apply. This policy shall be viewable by the guests and is legally binding. The following cancellation fees shall be applicable and shall be calculated by reference to funds received at that point.

Should the booking be cancelled 31 days or more prior to the check-in date, a cancellation fee of 20% of the funds received at that point.

Should the booking be cancelled 30 days or less prior to the check-in date, 100% of the funds received at that point.

This policy will apply to any inconvenience caused by e.g., COVID related Regulations potentially promulgated with regards to restrictions on beach access etc. And if any Regulations prohibit guest taking occupation, then a cancellation fee of 20% funds received at that point, will be charged.

Southern Staying may take action to recover unpaid debts from you, including but not limited to, offsetting your debt against other amounts we owe you, delisting your Establishment, employing a debt collection agency, or blacklisting you in the industry. In such circumstances, interest may be retrospectively applied to any outstanding amounts at a rate of 5 percentage points above the prime lending rate.

FRAUDULENT TRANSACTIONS AND FALSE PAYMENTS

You acknowledge that in the event of a Customer's payment being a fraudulent credit card payment, fraudulent bank deposit, fraudulent proof of payment or in the event of a Customer's payment being reversed for any reason by the bank or any other agency, Southern Staying's responsibility is limited to the forfeiture of any commission it may have earned on the booking and you are responsible for the repayment of any payment you may have received in respect of the booking, irrespective of the Applicable Cancellation Policy for that booking. This amount should be refunded to us immediately on notification by us to you that the payment has been reversed out of our bank account.

AFFILIATE PARTNERSHIPS

Southern Staying may, from time to time, partner with other websites, apps or companies for purposes including, but not limited to, further promoting properties listed on the Southern Staying software.

Southern Staying may, at its sole discretion, extend all rights granted to it to said partners.

Southern Staying is under no obligation to inform you of any partnerships that may be Entered in, or to inform you of any sharing of your Content with a partner, or to specifically note which enquiries or bookings were introduced by a partner.

Southern Staying will not be liable to you for the actions of affiliate partners, including in respect to our use of your Content.

CHANGE OF AGREEMENT

This agreement or any part thereof may at any time be changed after a 48-hour notice period commencing from such time as Southern Staying emails you at your supplied email address with a copy of the new agreement, or a link to the new agreement. After said notice period you are deemed to have consented to the new agreement and will thereafter be contractually bound to the new agreement, unless you have actively delisted your Establishment from the Southern Staying Software before expiration of said notice period.

OPTIONS IN LISTING YOUR ESTABLISHMENT

A: 15 % PLUS VAT ON COMMISSION

Here you choose to advertise your establishment on Southern Staying software. You use Southern Staying only as an advertising platform. No management of guests or establishments are offered with this option.

You must have your own availability calendar (Nightsbridge) and MUST provide Southern Staying with the Nightsbridge ID and room number of your establishment. You must give Southern Staying permission to add this calendar to Southern Staying's software.

The data we obtain from this provider with respect to your Establishment must always be accurate and up to date. The dates you would like to use the establishment for personal use or booked by other rental agents, must therefore be programmed into this software.

We guarantee the lowest fee that our customers can find on the internet for your property. You agree that you will not undercut this lower fee on any marketing material or platform, in person or telephonic, or per e-mail with a guest and then book the dates for personal use. You will be responsible for the commission if you do so and will be delisted.

You will give us permission to make a provisional booking and will allow us 48 hours to obtain the deposit. Thereafter we will supply you with the details of the guest. You must then make sure that you update the generic details, sent by Nightsbridge, to reflect the actual details of the guest arriving.

Southern Staying software makes use of a third-party availability provider, e.g., Nightsbridge that is integrated with Southern Staying software on your behalf.

The data we obtain from this provider with respect to your Establishment must always be accurate and up to date. The dates you would like to use the establishment for personal use, must therefore be programmed into this software before other bookings can be accepted. Price increases must also be agreed to in writing when reminders are sent to establishments. In the event where you did not reply within two weeks upon receipt of the e-mail to notify you that owner dates and agreed prices must be handed in, Southern Staying will assume that you will not use the house/flat for personal use and that you agree to the said price increases. The dates will therefore be available for guests to book. Note that dates to rent out must be available six to twelve months in the future. You will be liable for any issues that arise because of dates not being available. We guarantee the lowest fee that our customers can find on the internet for your property. You agree that you will not
